Middlebury College Annual

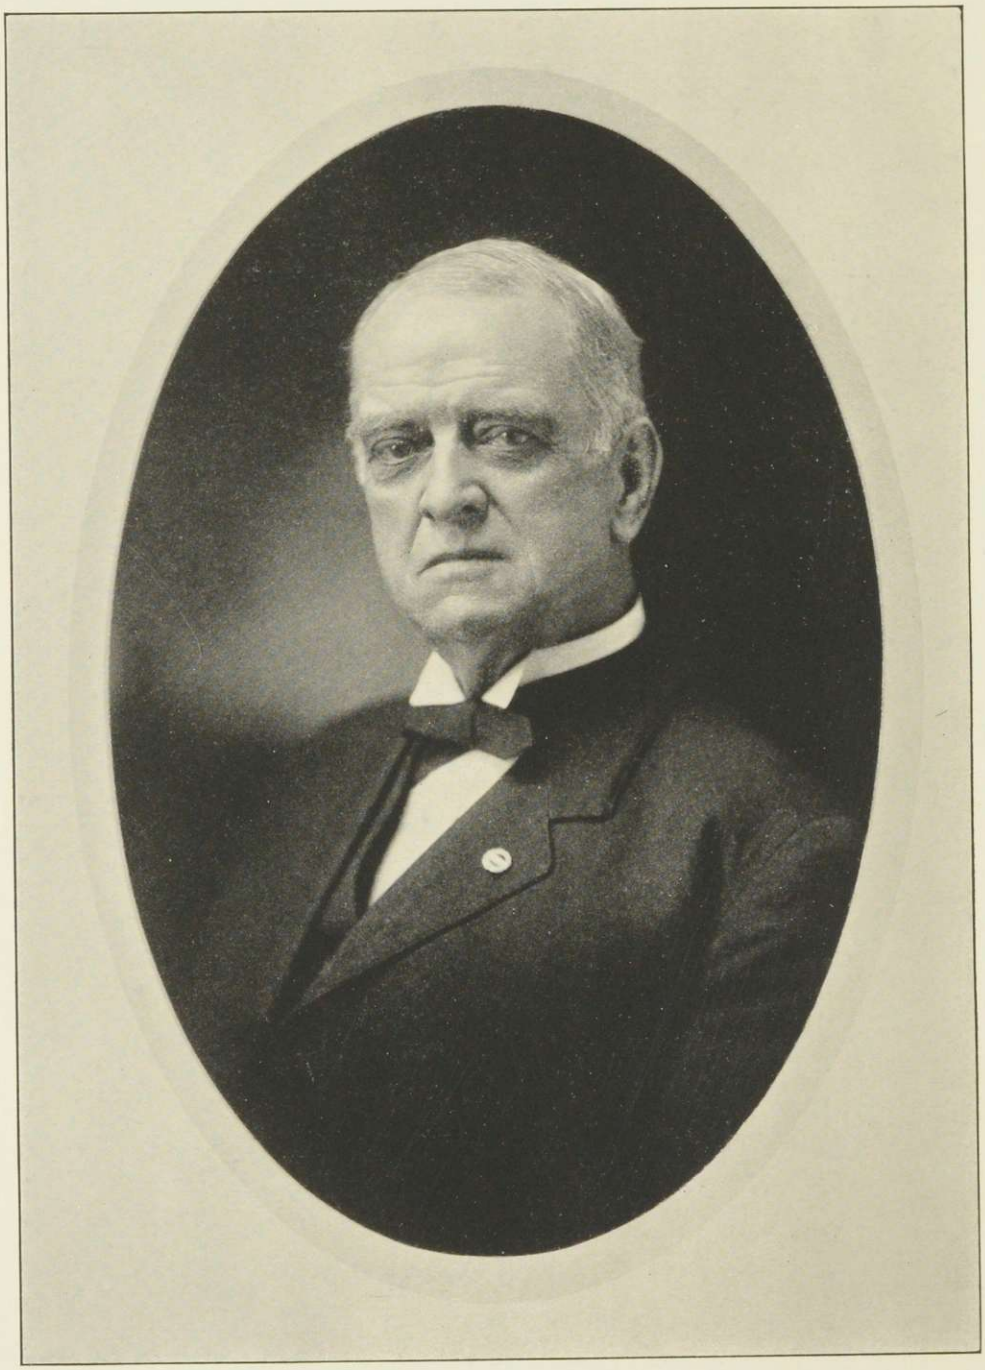
Vol. XXI

Edited by the Class of 1916

Middlebury, Vermont
1915



To

Hon. John Abner Mead, A. M., M. D., LL. D.

of the Class of 1864, who, as Alumnus and Trustee, has served his Alma Mater faithfully and well, and as donor of the Mead Memorial Chapel has proven one of her most munificent benefactors, this volume of the

Kaleidoscope

is respectfully dedicated.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE.
THE HOWE SCALE COMPANY
RUTLAND, VERMONT.

Rutland, Vt., Dec. 11, 1914.

J. James Floyd, Editor,
Middlebury College,
Middlebury, Vt.

My Dear Sir:-

Your esteemed favor of the 2nd inst. received this A. M. and I hasten to respond to the very kind and appreciative thought expressed in said letter. It will be my pleasure to mail you the photograph desired, as per your suggestion, and through the Kaleidoscope to express to the members of the Junior Class, to the Faculty, the Alumnae and Alumni of our beloved college, my high appreciation of the many kind words spoken and for the innumerable letters received commending this gift to our Alma Mater. I have realized for many years that the only enduring source of happiness springs not from selfish acts, but is only attained by doing for others where no return can be expected, and the greater is the pleasure when you so govern your acts, that mankind may rise to a higher lever - that other lives may be happier and more useful because you have lived and have seen and realized an opportunity. It was this thought which inspired my desire to assist the students of Middlebury college in having a place of worship where they could all assemble in one auditorium for this inspiration, that the duties of each day might begin with a religious thought, which we all realize is the foundation of all true knowledge.

Assuring you of my very high regards, I remain,

Most respectfully,

John C. Mead.

Editor's Foreword

In view of the rapid expansion and development of Middlebury College within the past few years, particularly since the entry of the class of nineteen sixteen, we feel that no apology is necessary, in presenting to the student body, faculty, alumni and alumnae, the first edition of the KALEIDOSCOPE as a distinctly college, rather than class annual. It is fitting that the evolution of the annual should keep pace with the growth of our institution. With this object in view, the class of nineteen sixteen has waived its claim to the time-honored tradition of publishing a class annual, and has endeavored to make the present volume more representative of the college as a whole.

It has been the ambition of the board to produce a book that would reflect credit upon our class, as well as measure up to the ever-rising standards of alma mater. We trust that our efforts will mean more than a mere record of college activities; that this volume will enable us, at some future time, to recall with pleasure and to live anew the spirit of undergraduate days.

Our task is finished, and to the members of the board it has been a source of genuine pleasure. For the benefit of the class we may add that the fellow who wrote the grinds was no respecter of persons. And though he committed nothing with malice aforethought, he has followed the impulse of his better judgment and taken up a temporary, but safer abode elsewhere. Conscious of its many imperfections, but realizing that we must inflict it upon you, the board presents herewith the twenty-first volume of THE KALEIDOSCOPE.

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE
MIDDLEBURY, VT

January 22, 1915.

To the Editors of the Kaleidoscope,

Middlebury College, Class of 1916.

The years in which you have been students of Middlebury have been a period of progress, almost unexampled in the history of the college, of much encouragement, hard work, serious responsibility, and no small anxiety. You entered the largest class but one received in Middlebury - to this date. We had just completed the General Education Board Fund of $200,000. The McCullough Gymnasium was just ready for use and we had acquired the Porter Field, which you have seen transformed to a real athletic field. You watched the Chemistry building grow and have had the first two years' use of its advantages. The Music building has been opened and the girls have overflowed into Hillside Cottage. Before you graduate we shall doubtless be using the new Mead Memorial Chapel, making the college plant almost a third larger than in your freshman year.

It is not only larger, but certainly also better - very much better. Some of the teachers who have helped you most have come to us during your course. It is harder to get into Middlebury and it takes more work to stay. There are more courses and better ones - and they are very much better arranged in the new group system. We have been investigated and pronounced a good small college - which is all we want to be. We are sure of the loyalty of our alumni and of the people of Vermont, and have more friends than ever before. Success to the future Middlebury and to all her friends and children, and may none be more loyal than the Class of 1916!

John M Thomas

The Chapel Bell

Near or afar off, still to me,
Enwrapt on Memory's hazy shore,
In half-sad thoughts of other days,
I hear the toll once more.

A thread that binds me to the past,
A link with magic spell,
Thou lead'st me back in pleasant dreams
To scenes I loved so well.

Old scenes, old faces, rise again.
Time's curtain backward rolls.
Old victories pass by, one by one,
Led by thy clamorous tolls.

Ring out forever, Chapel Bell,
O'er valley, hill, and lea.
Ring out thy call to toil and sport,
True worth and victory.

Durs To Do

Our achievements in four years at Middlebury have crystalized into many forms that go to make up the figures "1915." Two successive victories in the hat scrap; a like number of basketball championships; a win in the tug of war; a rousing good Freshman banquet, and a very creditable KALEIDOSCOPE are but a few of the accomplishments of what is unquestionably the finest class that ever entered Middlebury College. In fact our rise from obscurity to the very pinnacle of fame has been like a scintillating comet, speeding across the ethereal blue.

But enough of mere collegiate honors. We are conscious of our greatness, and modestly excuse it on the ground that by every law of nature, cream must rise to the surface,—so here we are. Looking down from our lofty elevation we feel inclined to offer advice to present and future Freshmen, who might worthily aspire to follow in our steps, but since they must be masters of their own destinies, we are constrained to hold our peace.

In a few short weeks, we must go out from these halls, which we so proudly entered in nineteen eleven. During these few years we have seen many changes in the personnel of the class; in the faculty, and in the college itself. We have watched our college take rapid strides toward greater power and more widespread influence. We have felt this growth reacting in our own natures and our affection has been quickened. And now, looking forward to Commencement we see the dawn of a new day,—a day of promise, a day of hope. Incalculable opportunities await us. As we go forth into the world may we be even more loyal as alumni and alumnae, and may we, in the unfolding years before us, bring fresh glory to our college of the Vermont hills—alma mater.

Venimus, Vidimus, Vicimus

We came as Freshmen and as such made the year 1912-13 one of the historical years of our college. Facts speak for themselves, so we will pass over our record for that year.

We saw as Sophomores,—what did we see? What else but the fading shadow of what was formerly called the Freshman Banquet? Nineteen Sixteen has the honor of being last, but not least, in upholding this college custom.

As Juniors have we conquered? With us in Europe the Allies would sue for peace and Germany go into oblivion. Some of the events which crown our entrance into upperclassdom are the beginning of a new chapel, a new rushing system and a tie football game with Vermont.

Other praises of our renowned class could long be sung but we cannot belittle our newly won dignity by doing it ourselves. Hence we pass on to where we now stand with malice toward none and friendship toward all, ready to take the final step, and, the faculty permitting, assume the dignity of Seniors.

Class of 1916

James Glenn Anderson, East Orange, N. J.

"Andy"

East Orange High School

Class Treasurer (1); Freshman Debating Team (1); Varsity Debating Team (2); President Middlebury Branch of Intercollegiate Prohibition Association; Vice-President Civics and Debating Club (3); Varsity Debating Manager (3); Social Service Committee (3); Hamlin Commons Committee (3).

This "unstandard dictionary of facts" feels duty-bound not to miss any recitation for fear the instructor may need the benefit of his assistance.

"While timorous knowledge stands considering
Audacious ignorance hath done the deed."

Eldon Adelbert Austin, A, Randolph Center

"Austin"

Prohibition Club.

The black sheep of the class! He has been put on probation for inducing the "co-eds" to break rules .

"Every inch that is not fool is rogue."

George Remington Ayers, ΚΔΡ,
Ballston Spa, N. Y.

"George," "Shot Gun"

Ballston Spa High School

Class Track (1, 2); Class Treasurer (1); Varsity Track (2); College Band (2); Inter-Fraternity Council (3); New York Club.

If the converse of the saying that valuable things come in small packages is true, we fear that "Shot Gun's" chances of amounting to much are very slim.

"Why, man, he doth bestride the narrow world,
Like a Colossus; and we petty men
Walk under his huge legs, and peep about
To find ourselves dishonorable graves."

Henry Edward Aylward, ΑΣΦ Ludlow, Vt.

"Zeb"

Black River Academy

Varsity Baseball (1, 2, 3); Class Baseball (1, 2), Captain (1); Rules Committee (3); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3); Hamlin Commons Committee; Delta Tau.

This ambidexterous speed king fools 'em all. It is rumored that he may even the fool the faculty into giving him a sheepskin.

"A good reputation is more valuable than ability."

Emerson Luke Bicknell, A, Charlemont, Mass.

"Bick"

Charlemont High School

Class Football (2); Glee Club (2, 3); Auditor KALEIDOSCOPE; Charter Day Play Cast (2).; Cercle Français.

The would-be singer. They carry him with the Glee Club to drive the people out when the concert is over, for when his melodious voice is raised all time records for emptying the hall are broken.

"Music is nothing else but wild sounds civilized into time and tune."

Caleb Thorndyke Brickett, ΑΣΦ,
Haverhill, Mass.

"Brick"

Haverhill High School

Class Basketball (3); Class Baseball (1, 2); Second Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Class Football (2); Hazing Committee (2).

The college pugilist. He can lick his weight in wild cats (if they are stuffed ones).

"He's welly like a cock as thinks the sun's rose o'purpose to hear him crow."

Robert Hart Bruce, A, Milford, N. H.

"Bob"

Milford High School

Freshman Banquet Committee; Inter-Fraternity Council; Philosophy Club; Sages.

They called him Robert as they thought he ought to have the one redeeming feature of a famous name.

"To be ignorant of one's ignorance is the malady of the ignorant."

Philip Harrison Condit, ΔKE,
East Orange, N. J.

"Phil"

East Orange High School

Bordentown Military Academy

Our gridiron leader. "Phil" is gunning for a green scalp from the north country, and already has space reserved for it in Midd's new trophy case. Ever notice that when "Phil" gets the pigskin tucked away under his wing, he seldom fumbles? There's a reason. 'Tis rumored that "Phil" received a bill for rental of Pearsons vestibule.

"All the world loves a lover."

Graydon Arthur Cowles, ΔΚΕ,
New Britain, Conn.

"Brick"

New Britain High School

Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Class Football (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (1); Assistant Manager Baseball (3); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Social Committee of Union (2); Finance Committee of Union (3).

Connecticut must have had little regard for her reputation to send a specimen like this, but we are going to fool 'em and send him back greatly improved. In fact he is already quite a respectable chap.

"To sentence a man of genius to the drudgery of a school, is to put a race horse in a mill."

Edward Marsh Dickinson, ΔΚΕ,
Lunenburg, Mass.

"Dick"

Phillips Andover Academy

Class Baseball (2); Class Track (2); Glee Club (2, 3); Manager Class Basketball (3); Mandolin Club (2); Phi Delta.

This mandolin artist is so materialistic in his ambitions that he has decided to major in physics one and two.

"Detailed knowledge immortalizes itself."

Carroll William Dodge, A, Pawlet, Vt.

Burr & Burton Seminary

First Prize in Horace (2); Member of Le Cercle Français (2, 3, 4), Program Committee (4); Member of Civics Club (4); Secretary of Societas Apollinea (4); Member ΕΤΑΙΡΙΑ ΕΛΛΗΝΙΚΗ (2, 3, 4).

Here it is, girls, and it's really human. But it's a rare specimen. Baird's Manual classifies it as "grindis effeminensis."

"A shallow brain behind a serious mask,
An oracle within an empty cask."

Philip William Ferguson, ΚΣ, Lyndonville, Vt.

"Ferg"

Lyndon Institute

Transferred from Brown (2); Class Baseball (2); Second Baseball (2); Class Track (2); Varsity Track (2); Second Football (3); Social Committee, Union (3); Junior Play Committee (3); Associate Editor Campus (3).

Some folks say "there ain't no such animal," but the biology professor assures us that it is merely a degenerate species of our first ancestor of African forest fame.

"A man too happy for mortality."

Frederick Lyon Fish, XΨ, Vergennes, Vt.

"Ted"

Vergennes High School

Varsity football (1, 3), Class Football (1, 2); College Orchestra (2, 3); Band (1, 2, 3); Junior Prom Committee.

The boy with the blush. Teddie is so much at home with the women, that when they are around his face is usually the color of a red flannel shirt. Don't worry, all children have to pass through the bashful stage.

"A blush is no language, only a dubious flag signal which may mean either of two contradictions."

John James Floyd, ΔΥ, New London, Conn.

"Jimmie"

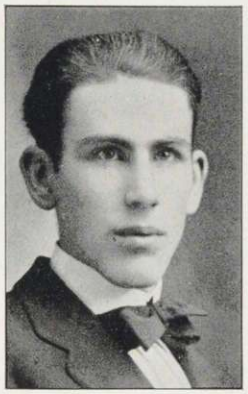
Bulkeley School

President Freshman Debating Society; Freshman Debating Team (1); Organizer Vermont Intercollegiate Debating Association (2), Secretary (2, 3); Varsity Debating Team (2); Debating Manager (2); Varsity Track (1); Cheer Leader (2); Chairman Finance Committee, Middlebury Union (2); Second Horton Debating Prize (2); Inter-Fraternity Council (2, 3); Executive Committee (3); Delegate Vermont Debating Conference (2, 3); First Associate Editor Campus (3); Treasurer Connecticut Club (2); Christmas Play Cast (2); Charter Day Cast (2); Executive Committee Civics Club (2); Manager College Book Store (2, 3); Editor-in-Chief KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Sages.

The silver-tongued orator. His next debate will be on "Resolved that the European conflict is due directly to the last appearance of Haley's comet."

*"His words * * * like so many nimble and airy servitors, trip about him at command."* [Not Guilty, Ed.]



Charles Atherton Fort, ΚΔΡ, Middlebury, Vt.

"Charley"

The musical chemist. He mixes compounds to the tune of "The high cost of loving" and then tries to sing chemical equations at the glee club rehearsals.

"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew
That one small (?) head should carry all he knew."

Senichi Fujimura, Yamaguchi, Japan

"Fuji"

Independent Technical School, Tokyo, Japan

Entered Junior year from Polytechnic Institute, Berlin, Germany.

The little giant. He evidently believes in Sherman's definition of war and so decided to spend a year in America.

"War, he sang, is toil and trouble;
Honour but an empty bubble."

Lloyd Blanchard Gale, ΑΣΦ, Batavia, N. Y.

"Windy"

Executive Committee Freshman Debating Society; College Orchestra (1, 2, 3), Leader (3); Glee Club (2, 3); Junior Play Committee.

The human pianola. You put in your nickel, turn the crank, and he does the rest. He can murder the best music ever written and still delude himself into believing he is producing harmony.

"How sour sweet music is, when time is broke and no proportion kept."

Harry Ray Hall, Α, Hardwick, Vt.

"Hall"

Montpelier Seminary

Prohibition Club.

The president of the anti-woman suffrage society. He argues that if women got the ballot they would be admitted to the voting booths, and under those circumstances he would not have the courage to go himself, and he considers it his duty, as a citizen, to vote.

"Were there no women, men might live like Gods."

George Warren Howe, ΧΨ, Valatie, N. Y.

"Spider"

Valatie High School

Phi Delta.

"Spider" can be easily seen with the aid of a reading glass (unless hidden behind his pipe). His latest fad is playing the "Big Brother part," and seeing that certain of the children get home from the kindergarten safely.

"Doubt thou, the stars are fire,
Doubt that the sun doth move;
Doubt truth to be a liar;
But never doubt, I love."

John Prescott Hoyt, ΔΣ, North Pomfret, Vt.

"Hoyt"

Mount Hermon School

Entered Junior year from Montpelier Seminary.

Here, we confess, is a horrible example. Behold the results of riotous living; and he came from Montpelier "Sem" too. He's a demure appearing individual, but when he's with a co-ed, just watch him.

"I want to be an angel, and with the angels stand."

Edward Shepard Huntley, XΨ,
New London, Conn.

"Eddie"

Bulkeley School

Delta Tau; Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Manager 1916 Football Team (2); Assistant Manager Football (3); College Rules Committee (3); Manager Football.

Eddie, the "Nutmeg" with the pink cheeks. Seldom seen about town without his furnace going full blast. Eddie is majoring in globe trotting and football schedules and promises us the best ever for next season. While he will give Dodge a hard rub for "Valedic," he doesn't neglect his duties in the Fussers' Club.

"We are here in college, but we're not here for knowledge,
So let's raise Cain while we're here."

William Russell Keefe, ΔKE, Greenfield, Mass.

"Pat"

Greenfield High School

Class Football (1, 2); Football Squad (2); Varsity Football (3).

"Pat" plays half-back on the football team, but they say he is most at home as draw-back when it comes to the fussers' line-up. At any rate he can find his way to Pearsons and Ginger on a foggy night, blindfolded. "Pat" impersonates a human battering-ram, when in football togs, but off the field he's as gentle as the proverbial lamb.

"The Lord made the Irish and if they don't amount to much,
They're a darn sight better than the daw-gone Dutch."

The social light of Middlebury. He's as much at home on a dance floor as an elephant on a tight wire.

"Awkward, embarassed, stiff, without the skill

Desirous seems to run away from t'other."

Harold Grant Locklin, ΔΣ, Richford, Vt.

Richford High School

A good example of a geometric line (that which has length only). He has to be careful, in walking across a floor, not to fall through the cracks.

"Every family has a skeleton in the closet."

Allen Prest Logan, East Orange, N. J.

"Loge"

East Orange High School

Class Football (2); Chairman Motto Committee; Prohibition Society.

The human smoke-stack. "Loge" has the biggest bump of knowledge of any man in college, but judging from his actions the knowledge must have bounced off without penetrating.

"He who has no inclination to learn more will be very apt to think that he knows enough."

Dan Owen Mason, ΑΣΦ, Hardwick, Vt.

"Dannie"

Hardwick Academy

Class Football (1); Freshman Banquet Speaker; Class Basketball Manager (1); Second Merrill Prize (2).

The class baby. Thanks to Mellen's food and the splendid care given him by the 1915 class during the period of his infancy (his Freshman year), he has thrived well, weighing at the present time about 374 pounds.

"He's a great big blue-eyed baby,
He's the sweetest thing I know."

Arthur James Mott, ΚΔΡ, Bristol, Vt.

"Art"

Bristol High School

President of Class (1); Mandolin Club (1); Second Football Team (1); Varsity Baseball Squad (1); Assistant Business Manager KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Freshman Debating Team (1); Freshman Banquet Speaker (1); Sages.

Our feather-weight from Bristol. "Art" ambled over the hills from the aforesaid wood-alcohol metropolis for Freshman year, arriving in time to assume the duties of Freshman Prex. Ask him and he will assure you that he's the "social light" of the college. Yes, indeed, you see he spent last summer in Rutland. Watch him on the dance floor.

"Grace is to the body what good sense is to the mind."

Here he is: the pride of Morrisville. Read his book on Freshman Class Meetings as Past Politics." Consult him on how to label candidates, etc. "Beanie" is all right, except that the molds for sizes twelve and thirteen pedal extremities got mixed, or lost, and they had to use what was left, so his feet aren't mates.

Sal, the whisky tenor. He has Caruso stopped a mile on the falsetto stuff. When it comes to managing glee clubs, he is a class all by himself. "Sal" gives his address as the ΔKE house, but if you want him in a hurry, call Pearsons first.

"Schwartzie"

East Orange High School

Class Track (1); Baseball Second Team (1, 2), Captain (2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Glee Club; Orchestra; Art Editor KALEIDOSCOPE; Student Welfare Committee.

To look at his name you might thing that he was Irish, but he isn't he's a Raphael in disgust. Schwartzie can sling the ink some, hence our recognition of his artistic ability, but when he starts to sing or caress that fiddle of his, it's time to take to the fire escape.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating."

Ralph Pendleton Shedd, A,

New Braintree, Mass.

"Shedd"

North Brookfield High School

Midd's Vernon Castle the second. He is the envy of the college owing to his wonderful ability on the dance floor, and it is hoped that he will carry out a plan he is considering of holding a college class in the new dances, including the alligator flop and the angle worm glide.

"Stately and tall he moves in the hall,
The chief of a thousand for grace."

George Henry Snyder, Granville, N. Y.

"Snyder"

Our best example of fidelity to one's own affairs. "Snyd" is so quiet that we hardly know he is around. His greatest sin is his silence, and since we can say nothing worse of him, we must admit admiration for his modest personality.

"Wild"

Northampton (Mass.) High School

Springfield (Vt.) High School

The wild man from West Stewartstown, captured while trying to bite his way through a Latin dictionary. This specimen from the wilds of the Granite State has gradually become domesticated and may even be seen ambling over the campus with a pipe in his face and a co-ed on his wing.

Joseph Alexis Wilson, ΔΣ, Amesbury, Mass.

"Joe"

Amesbury High School

Class Track Team (1); Social Welfare Committee of Union (2); College Welfare Committee, Union (3); Assistant Manager Varsity Track (3), Business Manager of KALEIDOSCOPE.

Joe is looking after the money end of this book, so we'll let him off with the statement that except for being bow-legged, cross-eyed and thick-headed, we consider him a pretty good scout.

"My beauty, though but mean, needs not the painted flourish of your praise."

Charles Horton Wright, ΚΔΡ, Akron, O.

"Chick"

Akron High School

Finance Committee, Middlebury Union (2), Chairman (3); Assistant Business Manager Campus (3); Junior Prom Committee; Deutscher Verein (3); Sages.

He's Akron's best, yet still he fakes,
When he misses classes his cuts he takes;
A harmless thing, yet somewhat rough:
He'd give so much if he were tough.

Chick makes no claim to being a song bird, but admits there's one air that haunts him even in his sleep:

"Bobbie"

South High School

Vice-President (1); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (1); Vice-President Athletic Association (3); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Musegahe Club (3); Banshee.

Talk about "love of luxury!" If anyone can beat Bob they deserve a prize. It's "Betty, please bring me a drink," or "Won't someone give me just one more pillow?" from morning till night. But then, Bob is a great cook so she has plenty of slaves.

"Whom the gods love, animals follow."

Vera Emma Arnold, ΣΚ, Quinebaug, Conn.

"Vera"

Southbridge High School

Secretary and Treasurer Athletic Association (2); Assistant Editor-in-Chief Campus (3); Musical Association (1, 2, 3).

We now pause to dwell on this phenomenon destined, as all indications will have it, to a successful career in the line of journalism. Her talents are not restricted to this however. She is never happier than when tickling the ivories or wooing sweet Morpheus.

"Care free is her slogan,

Lucia Madeline Besiegel, Dalton, Mass.

"Eddyite," "Bike"

Dalton High School

Banshee; Musical Association (1, 3); Basketball (2, 3); Deutscher Verein (3); Secretary of Class (3); Cast of "The Tempest" (3).

This is Lucia; well-named "Batty." How does she keep her eyes so bright? She sleeps sixteen out of every twenty-four hours. Her greatest troubles are her snoriferous roommate and clocks. Why did she dedicate her Horace notebook to A. D——?

"Her very frowns are fairer far

Helen Melina Bosworth, ΠΒΦ,

"Bozzie"

Bristol High School

Banshee; Freshman Banquet Committee (1); Musical Association (1, 3); Membership Committee Y. W. C. A. (3); Assistant Editor-in-Chief KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Cast of "The Tempest" (3).

"Boz" has had quite a varied career. As a Freshman she was moved to tears at the sight of every stray kitten, but as a Junior she moved others to tears by her continual longing for KALEIDOSCOPE items. She is a first-class comedian and shines in the minstrel shows.

"On her mouth a doubtful smile dwelt."

Helen Madeline Carrigan, AX, Brandon, Vt.

"Helen"

Brandon High School

Class Basketball (1); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Musegahe Club (1, 2, 3); Cast of Christmas Play (2); President Musegahe Club (3).

Helen is a proud descendant of the sons of Erin. She will give you information on any known subject—including Alpha Sigma Phi. The Musegahe Club is her pet hobby. She is one of Betty's most loyal supporters.

If you need someone your faults to defend,
She is the very best person to have for a friend.

"Dillar a dollar, an all around scholar."

Ruth Helen Conner, ΣK, Methuen, Mass.

"Canner"

Her goal is education. Her specialties are Math. and walking. How she can walk! "Canner" is a true blue sport, but usually she "can't be bothered." "Poor Dub!"

"One of the best wimmin on this continent, altho' she isn't always gentle as a lamb, with mint sauce."

Gladys Jane Cook, Middlebury, Vt.

"Cookie"

Her cheeks are round and rosy, her eyes are shiny, just as a good Cookie's ought to be. Made of class A material, too. Watch out when she gets started on one of her favorite topics, especially if it's "History."

B'Gee, B'Gee! What any man dare, I dare! Anna is our quiet little girl from the ancient city. What was her reception on coming to Middlebury? It is quite evident she was well "met."

"She with all the charms of woman,
She with all the breadth of man."

Reta Lorain Forbes, Middlebury, Vt.

"Reta"

Middlebury High School

This is Reta. We have seen her in classes and we have seen her on campus, but who has ever heard her? She comes and goes so quietly that it is hard to imagine her a member of '16.

"I have not loved the world,

Naugatuck High School

Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Class Basketball (2); Secretary Connecticut Club (2); French Club (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3); Musegahe (1, 2, 3).

Ethel would aspire so high,
Would stop at nothing but the sky;
Fourth floor Pearsons was her goal.
Still ever upward flew her soul.
When all its magic lore she'd garnered
She up and took the train for Barnard.

"Independent" is the most fitting adjective to describe the General's character. While she has a leaning toward Chemistry and Biology, her pet aversion is germs and caterpillars.

Isabelle Beulah Griffith, ΦΜΓ, Brandon, Vt.

"Gabelle"

Brandon High School

Isabella has a great fad for collecting curios. Would you believe it, she even has been known to go as far as Burlington to see one specimen. Her favorite flower is Jack-in-the-pulpit.

"Not swift, nor slow to change, but firm."

Frances Madeline Guerin, ΣΚ,

Mary Elizabeth Halpin, Middlebury, Vt.

Dorothy Harris, Jefferson, N. Y.

"Dorothy"

We are sure if Dorothy were an author these would be her sentiments:—

"When Sunday comes I put away my t-o-y-s,

For into wicked men they'll g-r-o-w,
And I don't know where they'll g-o-o!"

Hazel Louise Hazeltine, ΣΚ,

"Hazel"

Pauline Helms, ΣΚ, Boston, Mass.

"Pickles"

"Kat"

Classical High School

Banshee; Basketball (1, 2, 3); Membership Committee (2); Second Horace Prize; Silver Bay Delegate (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Deutscher Verein (3).

Cap'n Hopps of Pearsons Hall Fire Drill. She comes from "Woosther," but she doesn't "listhp." Her chief anxiety is that her brother's prowess as champion high-hurdler of N. E. will not become known. Altho' Kat scoffs at all men as "bores" we think she is bluffing, for she is a most devoted student of Home Economics, Household Arts and the Care of the Home.

"We never heard her speak in haste,—
Her tones were sweet,
And modulated just so much
As it was meet."

Mary Elba Holmes, Westminster Station, Vt.

"Mary"

Bellows Falls High School

Behold an ardent lover of the gods of music. Early and late Mary pounds away. Otherwise she is gentle as the South Wind, tho', listen, we have heard it whispered she is very fond of apple-juice!

"For nothing lovlier can be found in woman than to study household arts."

Mertice May James, ΦΜΓ, Madison, N. J.

"Mertie"

Madison High School

Campus Board (3); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3); Deutscher Verein (3).

Class optimist—she sees only the funny side of her tribulations. We would recommend her as first aid to homesick Freshmen. Her highest ambition is to gain in a-oirdupois, but despite her most strenuous efforts is still, in her own words, "a poor wart." By Heck, we couldn't get along without her.

"I am not only witty in myself but cause that wit in other men."

Mildred Hathaway Jones, Mansfield, Mass.

"Keet-a"

Bernardston High School

Banshee; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Secretary of Musical Association (3); Membership Committee (2); Sophomore Hop (2); Social Board (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3).

Keet-a—class man-hater, and ardent rooter for the Massachusetts Club. Scores of adventures strew her path—and the things she "has had a chance to do"—. But do not mistake her—she not only obeys the call of Duty but intends that all her friends shall. She specializes in only one men's fraternity, but Loyalty is her middle name.

"We love her merry laughter,
Which goes up and down the scale.
I cannot tell you which it's like—
A rooster or a whale."

Helen Esther Kenrick, ΣΚ, Walpole, N. H.

Happy are they who can combine pleasure with business. (Ask the editor-in-chief for particulars.) A philosophical mind rules this small person, but she is not above frivolity. Consult her, if you dare, on How to deal with premature bids to the "prom."

Time—5:00 p. m. Saturday.

Scene—Fourth Floor, Pearsons.

Stentorian vioce from the depths, "Buggy Lin NELL! Tel-a-phone!"

"A daughter of the gods, divinely tall,

Charlotte Corbusier Marsh, Bridgeport, Conn.

"Pug"

Bridgeport High School

"Eddyite"; Basketball (1, 2, 3); Track Manager (2); Vice-President Connecticut Club (2); Athletic Editor KALEIDOSCOPE (3).

Charlotte is the chief disciple of hurry that we know of. It's, "Lucia, are you coming! I've a stack of errands and some letters to post. Will you please move!" And at meal time, "Will you please excuse me for being late, there was so much to do?"

Amy Iona McNall, ΣΚ, Malden, Mass.

Dorothy Irene Noyes, AX, Salisbury, Vt.

"Dot"

Troy Conference Academy

Secretary of Y. W. C. A. (2); Class Secretary (2); Deutscher Verein (2); Vice-President (3).

To look at Dot one would never guess the store of knowledge she is carrying around with her—no small part of it being the best way of getting around a professor. Despite her gentle smile she is a very determined young miss,—

And if you don't believe it,
Why, all you have to do,
Is to kid her about her minister friends,
And you'll find it's true.

"In youth and beauty wisdom is but rare."

Rachel Horne Pressey, ΣK,

You will know her by her cry—"Come on, girls, let's have a good old whiskey-i-i, one two, three—whiskey-i-i." She lives in daily fear of flunks, but her laughter is with us yet.

Her devotion to Eddyitism is only exceeded by her devotion to her brother. It's a shame that such a loyal daughter of Japan should not have had different-colored hair.

"Then came a new friend,

Elizabeth Louise Smeallie, Yalesville, Conn.

"Smeallie"

Wallingford High School

"Cecile"

Middlebury High School

Flora Louise Willmarth, Addison, Vt.

"Flora"

Flora is a studious lass who was never known to say "I don't know." And yet she says she doesn't study.

Martha Elizabeth Wooding, ΦΜΓ,

"Betty"

Wallingford High School

Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Assistant Art Editor of KALEIDOSCOPE (3).

Betty is not the quiet demure little girl that the "Nutmeg State" sent up here her Freshman year. But she is far from being a roistering tom-boy even now, and we doubt if any amount of college education could make her one.

"Learned she was in medicinal lore,

Lois Belle Wright, ΠΒΦ, Shoreham, Vt.

"Belle"

Middlebury High School

Who'd blame her for this folly?

Freshmen, Lend Us Your Ears!

First impressions are generally lasting and ours was such when we made our debut on that bright October afternoon, by winning the hat scrap from 1916.

In football we played against a nearly all-varsity team, and although beaten, showed an amount of fight and grit that won the admiration of the spectators. It isn't always a question of winning, but rather of the way you fight.

In winning the interclass track meet and baseball game, we demonstrated that the class with the goods and spirit wins.

September found us back in full numbers, ready to lead the wandering footsteps of incoming Phi Beta Kappa aspirants in the straight and narrow (though rose bordered) path of knowledge. Again we walked off with the hat scrap, which by this time had become a habit, as was again proved when we captured the football laurels from nineteen eighteen.

Pardon us if we reiterate the consensus of opinion that our Hop was the best one ever given.

If these glimpses of our history do not prove our sterling qualities, turn to the detailed accounts in our historical volumes.

Ours To Grow

If some kind student had made it known that you were going to tell the world at large about us, we might have accomplished something worth telling about. As it is we haven't.

Handicapped as we were, by easily discernible "pea green" caps, we haven't accomplished as much as we might have, had someone "wised us up," but we think that even the Sophomores must admit that there is some semblance of gray matter under those pink buttoned "half portions."

Though we lost the hat scrap, the fact that we participated resulted in fusing into a unit fifty individuals who had previously been engrossed principally in their own welfare. It instilled into the minds of nineteen eighteen men that undefinable, but very real idea—class spirit. In track we were nosed out, but made a good showing. In football, while we lost, we attribute it to over-confidence, in as much as we had six varsity men on the squad. Just watch us in basketball and baseball!

At present, we feel that class spirit is predominant. With the hard knocks of the different contests and the ever present object lessons before us, we will come to learn that lasting and precious lesson of the Freshman year—utter devotion to the college.

Review of Football Season 1914

Captain Jones

Looking back over the season as a whole, which included the heaviest schedule yet attempted, and considering the games which we especially desired to win, the season of 1914 must be called a success.

With thirteen men back early, the season started with the establishment, for the first time, of a football camp at Lake Dunmore.

The opening game with Vermont was postponed. Our first game was with Amherst, which we lost 17—0, though the score does not indicate the stubborn fight that Middlebury maintained. After putting up a stiff battle with R. P. I. for the first half, Middlebury weakened in the second, and lost 21—7. Injuries and poor work of the officials contributed to the size of the score. On October 17th, Fordham ran up the largest score of the season, winning 28—0. Wretched work by the officials again figured largely in the result. In the next game Middlebury struck her gait, smothering St. Lawrence 31—7. In Springfield Training School, Middlebury met a superior, better trained machine and lost a hard battle 27—7. Repeatedly Middlebury held for downs within the five-yard line, presenting a line that Springfield men declared to be "the best they had faced

Manager Cabot

Captain-Elect Condit

since meeting Harvard." On November 7th M. A. C. pulled out a winner by virtue of an intercepted pass and lucky 95-yd. run to a touchdown. Jones and Condit were unable to play owing to injuries.

By the narrow margin of a pass over the goal line, Middlebury nosed out a winner over Norwich 7—0. The game was loosely played. The season closed with a 0—0 tie with Vermont. On a gridiron flanked on all sides with banks of snow, the temperature too low for comfort of either players or spectators, Middlebury played Vermont to a standstill. It was the hardest fought game of the season.

Summing up, the season, taken as a whole, was a success. With but two men lost to the squad for next year, through graduation, the team of 1915 should be the strongest in Middlebury's history.

CHARLES S. JONES, Capt.

Review of the 1914 Baseball Season

Captain Vail

The baseball season of 1914 was probably the most successful the college has ever had, not because of the large percentage of games won, but because Middlebury had a team on the field well coached in every department of the game, inspired with confidence, supported by both faculty and students, and working as a unit for the college.

The 1914 team was a result of good material in the hands of a man with a perfect knowledge of the game, with a rare ability to handle men, and a personality that inspired confidence. Too much credit cannot be given Coach Murch for the season's success.

A late spring necessitated working in the gymnasium and the team had to begin its schedule with little or no outside practice. Despite the fact that the team had not played a single college game previous to Junior Week, it came through the week victorious over New Hampshire State and University of Vermont, 4 to 2 and 3 to 2 respectively, in two of the hardest games on the schedule.

On May 15th we smothered Colgate in a one-sided game 12 to 5, and on the following day lowered the colors of Rensselaer 3 to 2. May 19th we journeyed to Northfield and buried Norwich 16 to 2, completely outclassing the cadets. St. Lawrence was our next victim with an 11 to 2 score, making the sixth consecutive victory.

The first reverse of the season came on May 30th, when the varsity fell down before Norwich University, a team vastly inferior in every department of the game, and which we had overwhelmingly humbled a few days previous. Over-confidence tells the story. St. Lawrence visited Middlebury on June 8th and met her second defeat of the season at the hands of the blue and white, 10 to 7. The game was spectacular and replete with exciting moments from start to finish. Our second and only other reverse of the season was received at the hands of Vermont, on the occasion of our invasion of Burlington. Though Middlebury expected victory, the loss of the game by a 4 to 3 score was no discredit. In all but one inning U. V. M. was held scoreless and only an unfortunate break netted them 4 runs and the game.

Manager Esten

The closing game of the season was the Commencement contest with the University of Hawaii. Though they came to Middlebury with the reputation of having beaten many of our larger universities, we defeated them handily 7 to 2, and this with Weafer out of the game. This feat in itself was conclusive proof that Middlebury's 1914 team was an exceptional one.

With but three varsity men lost to the college by graduation and the addition of new material from the Freshman class, prospects are very good for an equally successful season in 1915.

H. J. VAIL, Capt.

Review of Track Season

With the establishing of a systematic coaching system, the winning of our first intercollegiate track meet, the shattering of two old college records and the establishment of one new record, the season of 1914 goes on record as successful.

We lost our opening meet to Vermont due to the absence, by illness, of Captain Jones and Condit. With these men back in form we won handily from R. P. I., a well-balanced and seasoned team. This feat without doubt marks the beginning of a new epoch in track athletics at Middlebury.

Captain Kron

Coach "Simmie" Murch divided his time between baseball and track. His efforts were largely responsible for the creditable record made by the team, inspiring as he did confidence on the part of the men and support on the part of the student body.

In looking back over the season's work we find new marks set up by Lee, '17, in the broad jump and high hurdles, while Day, '15, acquired Middlebury's first discus mark. Letters were awarded to Jones, Condit, Lamere, Bresnahan, Day, Lee, Hollister and Kron. These men are still in college and form the nucleus of what should be a fast team for the coming season.

Arrangements have been completed for another step forward, in sending a team to the New England Intercollegiate meet next spring. This means that Middlebury will assume a more important place than ever before in intercollegiate Track athletics.

The greatest advance to be noted is the marked increase in the interest and spirit of the student body as a whole, especially on the part of men out for the team. This, in itself, can do much to keep Track in its proper place among varsity sports.

For next season, Manager Shea has arranged the best schedule we ever had, including Vermont, St. Lawrence, R. P. I. and the Intercollegiates. With a new track that should be faster than ever;

Manager Newman

a Track coach engaged to devote all his time to training the men, all of the "M" men still in college and available, and in addition some good Freshman material, to say the least, the team should bear watching.

We are going forward, not backward, working now for the future.

C. G. KRON, Captain.

Editorial

Tennis at Middlebury College, though never a major activity, is rapidly taking its place as one of the minor sports in college. The Tennis Association, composed of members of the faculty and undergraduates, maintains well kept courts on the campus and stimulates interest in the game by occasional tournaments. Efforts were made last year to bring the tennis teams of Middlebury and U. V. M. together, and only failed because of inclement weather on the dates selected. While nothing as yet has been attempted this year, the advent of spring should bring added interest in the sport. With a number of new tennis players in the Freshman class, together with the veteran material in college, it is hoped that tennis may be put on a more permanent basis as a minor intercollegiate activity, and annual matches arranged with our time-honored rival, U. V. M.

Editorial

Basketball has never enjoyed recognition as an intercollegiate sport at Middlebury, though the advisability of supporting a varsity team has been the subject of annual debate. With the unmistakable passing of the game as an intercollegiate sport, its recognition as a varsity activity at Middlebury is doubtful, but its place as an indoor, interclass activity is established. Following the close of the football season, there follows a lull in the athletic life of the college, which is broken only by the interclass basketball series. The rivalry of the respective classes and the keen competition for interclass honors which invariably develops, have made basketball an acceptable means of breaking the monotony of the Vermont winters.

Editorial

The Middlebury College musical clubs, under the direction of Professor Royce of the Department of Music, have attained a proficiency perhaps never before equalled in the history of the college. The College Band, of which the undergraduates have long been proud, has developed into a very well balanced organization and is a necessary adjunct of all intercollegiate athletic contests.

The Glee Club, combining the Zig Zag Minstrels, made a very successful trip to Bristol, and contemplates trips to Ripton, Vergennes, Brandon and Ludlow, The College Orchestra, Mandolin Quintette and College Quartette have all played an important part in the development of undergraduate musical activities.

College Debating

Pres. C. T. Day

To the pleasure of both the students and Faculty, varsity intercollegiate debating was again organized, in 1914, as a major activity of Middlebury College.

Interest in college debating had remained dormant for some years—until the entrance of the Class of 1916, which formed a Freshman debating Society and team. This team, under the management and leadership of Floyd, '16, challenged the Freshman class of Midd's old rival, Norwich University, and in the resulting debate held at Middlebury, won the decision over their opponents.

Enthusiasm in intercollegiate debating at once revived, and the College looked forward with delight to the possibilities of a varsity debate the following year. Through the efforts of Floyd, the College was not disappointed, and in January 1914 a conference of delegates, representing the University of Vermont, Norwich University, and Middlebury College, was held at Burlington. At this conference triangular debates between the three institutions were arranged, and a Triangular Debating League was organized, of which Guy B. Horton, of Burlington, and J. J. Floyd, of Middlebury, the Middlebury delegate to the conference, were elected chairman and secretary of the league

Coach Wetherell

man and secretary of the league respectively.

The debates, in which each college placed two teams, the home teams taking the affirmative and the visiting teams the negative side of the question, were held the evening of March 25th, 1914. Both the Middlebury home and visiting teams were given unanimous decisions over the University of Vermont and Norwich University respectively.

A great share of the credit for this overwhelming success of the Middlebury debators is due to the splendid coaching of the teams by Professors Wetherell and Abbott, and the loyal support of the student body, to whom the Debating Society tender their appreciation.

A meeting of the Triangular Debating League to arrange the debates for the college year 1914-15 was held at Burlington December 7th. To this conference Norwich failed to send a delegate. Although this precluded arrangements similar to last year, yet it was arranged that Middlebury should debate U. V. M. at Burlington, on the evening of March 12th. The keen enthusiasm which is being manifested and the careful preparation which each college is making for the contest, predict a debate of unusual interest.

As an intercollegiate activity, debating at Middlebury needs no apologies. As a training of the mind and a preparation for the best citizenship it stands on a plane of highest merit. May it ever continue to be a permanent institution in Middlebury College.

Founded on the unselfish basis of promoting the best interests of the Men's College by fostering a loyal and beneficial co-operation among the undergraduates, the Middlebury Union, with less than a year's growth, is recognized as a unit of unsurpassed importance among the college activities. With sincere esteem for its unsullied record, faithful allegiance to its present endeavors, and conscientious consideration of future responsibilities, the Union looks forward with pride to the day when it shall possess on the campus its own marble home—the expression of democracy and fellowship.

KALEIDOSCOPE BOARD

Undergraduate Publications

Editorial

The history of student publications at Middlebury is a record of intermittent endeavor along two distinct lines: the publication of a college annual and the maintenance of a college magazine, or newspaper. Both of these publications have been issued with more or less irregularity, and not until comparatively recent years has there been any real semblance of continuity.

The evolution of the present KALEIDOSCOPE is a story of its development from a small, unpretentious volume, first published by the class of '74, into the more ambitious volumes of recent classes. The old KALEIDOSCOPE appeared irregularly for a period of years, and was usually published by the Senior class. In 1886, after a lapse of several numbers, it appeared as a Junior class publication. With the class of '98 it took the form of "The Middlebury College Souvenir," and in 1900, we find the Centennial volume bearing the name "Laurea," as did several succeeding volumes. After a few issues, there was a reversion to the old KALEIDOSCOPE, which has continued since as a Junior class annual. The present volume marks the change from a class to a college annual, financed by the undergraduate body, and edited by the Junior class.

The present Middlebury Campus has had an equally varied career. The first college paper published at Middlebury appeared in 1830, and shortly afterward it went out of existence. In 1876, a paper bearing the same name, The Undergraduate, was established, and has continued practically without exception since that date; usually as a magazine appearing monthly, though not always bearing the same name. Within the present century its present name, The Middlebury Campus, was adopted, and in 1913 its form was changed from a monthly magazine to that of a college newspaper, as it is now published. The Campus as a newspaper has more nearly met the needs of the student body.

Frightful. Shocking!

Apparently not a master.

Apparently slight ability to attack a problem independently.

Not satisfactory in the problems that take close thinking.

I am sorry for you, you are mentally deficient, Mr. ——, your work is slovenly. Indeed, how did you ever get into college?

Wonderful! If that were so, Trigometry would be a two-page supplement in the back of an algebra.

Sit Down!!! (Not in a stage whisper)

Wonderful discovery! Indeed, my dear, why don't they publish it in the morning papers?

Mr. H—— has that wise look on his face, he will tell us about it in a minute.

Sit Down!!! (fairly loud)

Pretty proof.

You have the mere outline of the facts.

What kind of an equation is that?

Where did you get this?

Oh, oh, oh! Absurd, absurd!

An Illustrated Poem

Have you heard my story so touching
About the Co-eds of Pearsons Hall?
If not, list to my teaching, oh Reader!
And guard lest you also should fall.

There is a custom that some term fussing,
What it is you yourself can divine;
You get it when you first are a Freshman,
And it lasts till your sheep-skin is signed.

But now many a fair-faced maiden
Dan Cupid by mistake passes by;
She must mourn in her boudoir at Pearsons
As the beautiful Sundays fly by.

But once a desolate Co-ed
In the wilderness devoutly did pray
That the god, who makes so much trouble,
'Cross her pathway some day might stray.

'Cross her pathway and that of her classmates
Who a like fate would also demand,
So what happened next in our story
Much easier we can now understand.

Still another maiden from Pearsons
A different course did pursue,
And lest some should fail to believe it
This picture proves that it's true

Inspired by the prayers of her classmate
She very soon so agreeable grew
That her poor escort, entirely bewildered,
Could no cause for her actions construe.

But he knew that the earth could not be
The place for a maiden like this,
And so grasping her gently but firmly
They headed for heavenly bliss

But 'twas vain as all man's aspiring,
And they soon were forced to return,
Back to Pearsons their sad way they wended,
And decided fair earth n'ermore to spurn.

Wanted!

Information on the two following questions:

1. Why doesn't the Woman's College try the flower treatment oftener on the professors?

2. Is "Toot" really as afraid of the girls in the class as the expanse of his back indicates, for have they not received the following bold epistle?

For the History and Political Science Co-Eds.

"Mr. Wetherell desires to thank the 'History and Political Science Co-Eds' for the box of flowers sent him during his recent absence from college. They are duly watered twice a day and serve as a constant temptation to go away again."

"Life"

With birth we're launched upon Life's stream,
Then youth comes on to view the scene.
With manhood's strength, we toil and spin,
Our place on earth to carve and win;
The battle wanes, our strength subsides,
And what were flood, are ebbing tides.
Then death doth close the earthly book,
And all but memory is forsook.
May Life be such, that when it comes,
The stream is crystal pure that runs,
And through succeeding ages climb
A monumental work through time.

The Vermont farmer, in addition to being thrifty, is a generous-minded individual. Tradition has it that annually he raises seventy-five percent of his poultry for market, twenty percent for table use and the remaining five percent for students to "pinch." SAMUEL STERLING SHERMAN

Samuel Sterling Sherman

Professor Samuel Sterling Sherman, who died in Chicago, November 22, 1914, at the age of ninety-nine, was not only Middlebury's oldest alumnus, but was reputed to be the oldest graduate of any American college.

Professor Sherman was born in West Rupert, Vt., November 24, 1815. The greater part of his preparatory course was taken in the academy at East Bennington and he entered Middlebury in September, 1834. In his autobiography, published in 1910, he writes very interestingly of the Middlebury of his time.

After graduation, he was obliged by reason of poor health to seek a warmer climate, and through the influence of Professor Fowler, secured an appointment as tutor in the University of Alabama. The journey occupied about six weeks, being made chiefly by stage and sailing vessel. In his work at the University he was associated with several men who achieved prominence in educational circles. Among these was Professor F. A. P. Barnard, later President of Columbia University in New York City.

After three years' service at the University of Alabama, he was induced by the Baptists of the state to undertake the founding of Howard College, which became under his leadership a strong institution.

In 1855 he took up the presidency of the Judson Institute, one of the best known female seminaries in the South. This institution prospered greatly during his administration and has never closed its doors, even in war time and during the troubles of the reconstruction period.

He resigned the presidency of the Judson Institute in 1859 and moved to Milwaukee, where he became connected with several educational institutions and was later offered the presidency of the University of Wisconsin. Business interests, however, called him to Chicago and there he spent the remaining years of his life.

Professor Sherman was considered to be one of Alabama's greatest men and Middlebury may well be proud of his record.

Middlebury College

FOUNDED IN 1800

---

In the year 1914-15 Middlebury reached a crisis in its history. The adoption of the suggestion that State aid to the colleges of Vermont be discontinued, which at one time seemed possible, would have seriously crippled Middlebury's efficiency, as approximately one third of its annual income would have been cut off. The people of the State, however, believe in the work that the college is doing, and the action of the legislature of 1915 is sufficient evidence of their endorsement. The State appropriations are not only continued, but Middlebury is to receive a permanent annual appropriation of $28,800 from the State.

In addition to the public endorsement which the college has received during the past year are the evidences of confidence displayed in the gift of a $60,000 chapel from Ex-Governor John A. Mead, and the unique bequest of the late Hon. Joseph Battell, by which Middlebury College is made the chief beneficiary of his large estate.

Middlebury has begun a new epoch in its history. The college is now on a secure financial basis and will be able to do more for its students than ever before.

For information as to admission, expenses, etc., apply to

EDGAR J. WILEY,

Assistant Dean.

We Recommend Middlebury Graduates

The following example shows our method:

When Supt. C——— of one of our large Eastern New York towns called at the office in may, 1914, to meet two Normal Graduates, both of whom he engaged to do grade work, he mentioned a Latin and French position at $600, and when he left the office he took with him the address and credentials of Miss D——— of Middlebury, Vermont, a member of the 1914 Class of Middlebury College. A few days later he phoned: "Have corresponded with Miss D——— and arranged to meet her at Middlebury tomorrow. Try to have an experienced Science and Mathematics woman there to meet me also, $750." In half an hour a 'day telegram' left our office, advising Miss R———, a Middlebury graduate teaching Science at ———, Vermont, to meet Supt. C——— the next day at Middlebury College. Two days later we received this letter from Supt. C———: "Saw Miss D——— and Miss R——— Saturday and contracted with them. I think we have made a find in both."
